FIFTH. PROCEDURE AND RESOLUTION OF THE CALL

The Universidade de Vigo will establish a selection committee to carry out the selective process.

After completing the application submission period, the Committee will assess the applications submitted in two phases according to the following evaluation criteria:

Professional experience (45%)

- Accredited professional experience in technical and economic management of projects (additional to the minimum required) 20%
- Accredited professional experience in the Spain-Portugal Cross-Border Cooperation Program (POCTEP) 15%
- Accredited professional experience in the design and organization of events and the management of work groups in the marine environment 10%

Training (25%)

- PhD/Master's Degree in the marine field 15%
- Training or specialization courses related to the technical profile 5%
- Level in Portuguese and / or English language above the level required 5%

Interview (30%)

The interview will be conducted in Spanish and may be partially developed in English.

Once the deadline for submitting applications has been completed, the provisional resolution of admitted and excluded candidates will be published by the Committee on the Campus do Mar website <http://campusdomar.gal/convocatorias/>. There will be a period of 3 business days to correct or amend the documentation presented. Subsequently, the Committee will publish the final resolution. It is understood that with this publication the claims presented against the provisional resolution are resolved.

The Committee will convene an interview with the three candidates that obtain a higher score adding the sections of Experience and Training.

Later, the definitive resolution will be published in the same place. Also, the candidates will be notified of the publication of this resolution via email. Against the resolution of the Committee awarding the position, a claim may be filed with the Committee within a period of 3 business days.

If the selection committee deems it appropriate, they will set a waiting list with the candidates with the best score to meet the possible needs derived from the project or other Campus do Mar activities.

If the merits of the candidates are unsuitable for the profile that is the subject of the call, the Selection Committee may declare with supporting arguments the selection process void.
